Drama Club Is Organized Here

Willis M. Brooks, President of the Drama Club of Torrance has directed several successful plays in Torrance.

At a meeting of the cast of the Women's Club Mystery play at the home of Mrs. H. H. Dolley a week ago Saturday evening, a drama club was formed.

This club is to be called "The Drama Club of Torrance," and will endeavor to keep Torrance and vicinity entertained with a series of plays. As yet, nothing definite has been decided as to what their first play will be.

The club has 22 charter members.

OLD MOTHER HUBBARD

The negative attitude of a child toward every meal is not necessarily that of an "unruly" child, but rather the result of misdirected management. To induce a child to eat when such an attitude has been formed means a radical change of approach. Coaxing or forcing will not succeed. Overcome opposition in a child by giving him no opportunity to oppose.

"Breaking the child's will" policy is only an acknowledgment of not understanding how to direct his will. Study the child and see what his habits and attitudes are that aid or prohibit good eating. Count how many times a day "no" and "don't" are said. These words many times a day build up a resistance in a child to all acts.

"What can a baby do?" was a sharp reproach to an over-reproving mother from her three year old. Slapping baby's hands is usually the beginning of a series of acts of repression which lead to a balking child a few years later. Reduce commands to a minimum, but be as determined in carrying out the few that are given, as wise in giving them.

Plan that suitable food will be prepared for the child, and sweets, except in fruits, omitted; the latter satiate the appetite quickly. At meal time make no comments on the food he should eat. Let him realize that no one is forcing him to eat anything. Remove the food after thirty minutes whether it is eaten or not. Be firm, yet kind in refusing all food between meals. Missing a few calories and vitamins is not as vital as establishing a normal attitude toward a habit of living.

Officers elected were: president, Willis Brooks; vice president, Karmee Dolley; secretary, Virginia Buxton; treasurer, Jay Allen. The by-laws will be drawn up by the officers and Mrs. N. F. Jamieson.

Tuesday the new club will present "The Mystery Play" in San Fernando for the benefit of the disabled veterans. Soon, the play will be given in Gardena, the date to be announced later.

Let the child help in preparing his food. His own mixing bowl, spoons and silver give food a new interest for him. Helping to serve offers an opportunity for activity that is "don'ted" when the family eats.

See that the family have hands off the negative child. Too many bosses are a great handicap to the training of a young child. He usually resists them all to find an open road for himself. A child is best managed into eating when he is least conscious of a wise direction in all his activities.

TO ATTEND RALLY

The Episcopal Sunday school will attend the rally of the schools of the diocese at Saint Paul's Cathedral, Los Angeles at 3:00 p. m., Sunday, April 22.

Izzy Murphy Is Uproarious Farce at Torrance Sun.

"Sailor Izzy Murphy" with George Jessel is the feature attraction at the Torrance Theatre Sunday. Jessel plays the title role of Izzy Murphy, a resourceful young perfume salesman. In an attempt to sell his "Dream of Love" perfume to M. Jules, a wealthy merchant, Izzy falls in love with the daughter, and is at once kicked out.

Urged by his partner to prefer charges, Izzy is trying to serve papers on M. Jules, when he hears that the rich man has left with Marie for parts unknown. He rushes to the pier, where he finds the yacht in charge of maillacs under the leadership of one "Orchid Joe."

Izzy introduces himself as a fellow nut and soon wins Joe's confidence. After a series of rollicking and unbelievably ludicrous escapades, Sailor Izzy comes through, and sits pretty on top of the world, with the pretty Mlle. Marie at his side.

Jessel is extremely amusing as the hero and Audrey Ferris' work convinces us that she really is the great find Warner Bros. boast her to be. Warner Oland, John Miljan, Otto Lederer, Clara Horton and Theodore Lorch are in the cast. Henry Lehrman directed. A farce worth seeing and seeing again.

N.V.A. Benefit at Orpheum Sat., May 5

With innumerable stage and screen stars providing entertainment, the National Vaudeville Artists' annual mid-night benefit show will be held Saturday, May 5, at the Orpheum and Pantages theatres, Los Angeles. A record-breaking attendance is expected.

The duplicated theatre procedure results from the success of last year's policy entailing the use of more than one theatre and instituted to accommodate the demand for seats.

An identical program will be offered at each house, the artists coveting to and fro. Countless inimitable bits of entertainment, some originated solely for the N. V. A. and presented by theatre-going's greatest luminaries, will embellish the offering.

Tickets will be placed on sale Monday, April 23, at all vaudeville theatres and at the Lloyd D. Mitchell branch ticket offices.

Comprising the N. V. A. honorary chairmen are Sid Grauman, Alexander Pantages and Harold B. Franklin.

"Dance with Waves," Says Long Beach Pavilion Owner

J. A. Crane, newspaperman of Long Beach, California, was in the city today on a short business trip in connection with the Silver Spray Pier dance pavilion, Long Beach, of which he is proprietor. Located on the outer end of the popular pier from which it takes its name, the Silver Spray enjoys increasing popularity among those who enjoy dancing to the accompaniment of the waves.

Two nights each week are set aside for "Old Time dances" and these events have proven very popular. Each Tuesday night is "prize night" followed by carnival night on Wednesday, each attracting a large number of regular patrons to the event, as do the other special nights throughout the week.

Pacific Electric Club Has Picnic

The Pacific Electric Rod and Gun Club held a picnic at Tournament Park, Pasadena, Sunday, April 15. About 50 from Torrance attended the picnic.

One of the features of the day was the ball game between the Pacific Electric team and Los Vegas, from which the P. E. emerged victorious.

Palisades Chorus and Orchestra Coming Sunday

On Sunday night, April 22 at 7:30, the Pacific Palisades orchestra and chorus of fifty voices will present a musical program at the First Methodist church of Torrance. Rev. R. A. Young has arranged to bring this organization here, and music lovers of Torrance and vicinity may expect to hear some splendid singing, inspiring orchestra music, and a talented speaker.

Frank Johns, Hit by Car, Is Hurt

Torrance Man Is Struck While Walking Near Harbor City

Frank Johns, 2065 22nd street, was badly bruised Saturday night when he was struck to the pavement by a car driven by R. W. Vail of Hermosa Beach.

Johns was walking on the Redondo-Wilmington boulevard near Harbor City when the accident occurred.

In a statement to the police sergeant, Vail said he was blinded by two on-coming cars, and did not see Johns until but a few feet from him. Before he could stop, he had struck him.

Vail picked Johns up and took him to the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital, where he was given emergency treatment.
